THE FULL WEIGHT of the COINS, with the LEAST WEIGHT allowed to pass of the Gold Coin.

GOLD.		Wt. allowed.	Full Wt.	SILVER.		Full Wt.
		dwt. gr.	dwt. gr.			dwt. gr.
Guinea	-	5	8 $\frac{3}{4}$	A Crown,	- - -	19 8 $\frac{1}{4}$
Half Guinea,	2	16	2 16 $\frac{1}{4}$	Half Crown,	- - -	9 16 $\frac{3}{4}$
Quarter Guin.	1	8	1 8 $\frac{1}{2}$	Shilling,	- - -	3 20 $\frac{2}{3}$
				Six Pence,	- - -	1 22 $\frac{1}{4}$

According to the above proportions it appears, that the value of a lb. of silver is 62s. or 3l. 2s. and of a lb. of gold is 44½ guineas, or 46l. 14s. 6d. Also that the oz. of silver is 5s. 2d. and the oz. of gold 3l. 17s. 10½d. So that the value of the standard gold is 15 times that of the silver, and 14th more.

8 January hath XXXI Days.

In antient Times, when Papists rul'd this Land,
 Their wooden Gods in every House did stand;
 They pray'd to Saints and Priests to be forgiven,
 And thought thereby their Souls would go to Heaven.
 But wicked Worship this I do protest;
 Believe me, Friends, it is a pious Jest.

10 February hath XXIX Days.

Who'd be a Papist then, of Sense and Thought,
Unless by Place, or great Preferment caught ;
They talk of Faith, but Faith sets that aside,
They'll make you Slaves, for to support their Pride,
And to convert and bring you to the Truth,
(Which they so call) will tell you Lies uncouth.

D 9		14		8	Δ	14 3	8a30	4m41	A noble person of distinction in the ecclesiastick order, about this time, Drise meets with honour and reward due to his merit. Wars seem to be impending in Moscovy and Sweden, and great disputes between the clergy and military, also between the Jacobites, the Pope, and Cardinals, and that his infallibility will prove fallable, and perhaps his holiness may be summoned before a greater tribunal than that of Rome; and I sincerely wish him a good journey.

Their Priests are Knaves, they stand so on Record,
 Tell Tales, of which they don't believe a Word.
 But if their Slaves (Lord how Mankind are sham'd)
 Doubt if they dare, for if they doubt they're damn'd;
 And at this Day, so 'twas with them of old,
 The Poor are fav'd by Faith, the Rich by Gold.

Set up a Crofs in every House and Room,
 And Satan dares not near the Place to come;
 'Twill fright the Devil, tho' he's ne'er so stout,
 Tho' not a Thief or Bailiff 'twill keep out.
 A hopeful Faith, a fine Religion too;
 They make a God, and tell him what to do.

Hopeful news, towards the end of the month, arrives from the East and West Indies, to the joy of the merchants. A Clergyman, in middle rank, gains great preferment. A calm season, in mundane affairs, according to the language of the stars. Pietatem sectare.

Then judge, my Friends, and parry well the Stroke,
 You that beg Chains, and a most hateful Yoke;
 If you a Priest from Rome, from France a King,
 You chuse to have, these Tidings they will bring;
 In short I'll tell you in a Word or two,
 What we must suffer, what these Things will do.

A Pope from Rome, oh! banish such base news,
 And all those tools that covet wooden shoes,
 Are chains more soft, more easily sustain'd,
 And popery kinder, than when Jemmy reign'd?
 Or can you think an ass when put to nurse,
 And taught fine tricks, will e'er return a horse.

Like Jove's vile Stork, such monarch will devour,
 He'll reign in name, and tyrant too in power,
 He's learn'd his trade, and only wants a shop,
 And hopes Saul's asses too will set him up;
 Which will prove best in truth 'tis hard to tell,
 One taught his trade in Rome, or one in H—.

1				5	7	8	3 28	10a56	1m 14	Merchants and accountants, about this time, meet with losses and disappointments, and a vile plot is discovered, and a great statesman meets the crowns of his prince; incendiaries are exerting all their diabolical arts to disturb our peace at home; and Rome is in the same predicament, as disputes between the Pope and cardinals appear to be many and great, and St. Peter's chair is very uneasy to Pope Pius the Sixth. Some people now will act their parts very fraudulently to their governors. Malus quærit similem.

What call you those who take such mighty pains,
To court and covet slav'ry, goals, and chains?
That they are more than mad, their passions prove,
Then send these jacks unto the king they love,
Marry a prostitute, if that's your doom,
She may prove good so may a king from Rome.

Much lying news will be dispersed abroad, fomenting uneasiness. Some warlike officer called to account for past actions. The crown of a great prince seems to sit uneasy, through the affronts of ungovernable subjects. In countries where armies are, a battle may be expected. Latet anguis in herba.

 Unknown to all the milder beasts of prey.

 Although he knows this is the road to hell.

1		☐				18	0 29	1m 10	7a 13	The aspects of this month are, for the most part of an amicable disposition. A notable marriage between a military person of high rank, and a lady of distinguished abilities now about. Some clandestine arts are used to stir up and irritate the old spirit of discontent in some of our seminaries. A general, or admiral merits the favour of his prince, and is promoted for his merit, unexpected and unsolicited. A cloud hangs over Austria, Livonia, and the West-Indies. Principi obedito,

From wicked kings and priests this monster fell;
 God made all free, oppression came from hell.
 Freedom is rich, from which great plenty flows;
 Slavery benumbs, productive of all woes.
 Let God give nature once again her own,
 And make proud Lewis tower on his throne.

And now, my friends, who do fair freedom prize,
 Keep foreign commerce ever in your eyes.
 Increase your seamen, 'tis the way direct,
 To strengthen George, and all his realms protect.
 Long may he live, our rights for to maintain,
 To make us happy, and him a blessed reign.

Of the ECLIPSES that will happen in the Year 1784.

WITHIN this year's revolution there will be four Eclipses, viz. two of the Sun and as many of the Moon; they happen in the following order:

The first is an Eclipse of the Sun, on Friday, February the 20th, at 25 minutes after our 8 at night; therefore invisible both to us and all the rest of Europe. It will be visible in South America, along the coast of Chili, Patagonia, and so on to Cape Horn.

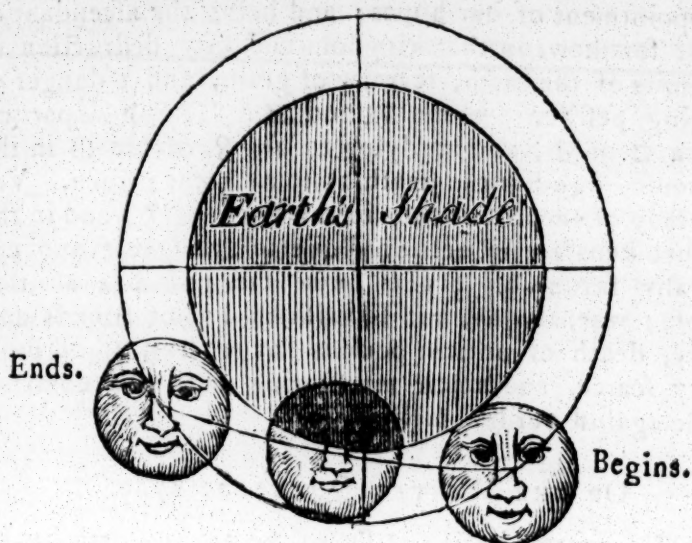

The second is a partial and visible Eclipse of the Moon, (if clouds interpose not) on Sunday the 7th day of March, in the morning. It will be visible to most parts of Europe and Africa, and to the whole of that great continent of North and South America. In these kingdoms of Great Britain the time and manner of its appearance may be expected to correspond with the following type and calculation.

The third is an invisible Eclipse of the Sun, August the 15th, in the 24th degree of Leo, about a quarter after our 12 at night. In the North East parts of Asia, and the North West parts of North America, this will be a great Eclipse, not total, but annular; the breadth of the annulus in the central path will be near half a digit on all sides.

The fourth and last is a partial Eclipse of the Moon, on Monday the 30th Day of August, but invisible to us in respect to London, for the Eclipse will be quite over at 7 minutes past 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Digits eclipsed at the middle are 8° on the Moon's lower limb; at the greatest obscuration, the Moon will be vertical at Cape False in New Guinea, in lat. 8° South, and 138° $\frac{1}{2}$ East longitude from London.

A TYPE of the MOON'S ECLIPSE, MARCH 7, 1784, as its appearance may be expected at London.

This Eclipse falls in the 11th house of the celestial mansions, in 18 degrees of Virgo; at which time 23 degrees of Libra is on the cusp of the eastern finiter, and 30 degrees of Cancer culminates: Venus and the Moon are chief rulers in this Eclipse; Venus and Mercury are posited in the 4th house; ♄, lately departed from a ♀ with ♀, is applying to Jupiter by a * aspect; Mars, lately in ☐ to ♄ and ♄, and now posited in domus mortis in the night-house of ♀, his dire effects will be felt, and will shew themselves in obnoxious dire diseases, destruction to cattle, unwholsome air, storms and tempests, great losses at sea, vast inundations, terrible slaughters by fire, famine, &c. Some eminent marriages will be celebrated about this time with some of the long robe, and also some of the cassock; great disputes and debates among the worshippers of wooden gods; bishops and inferior ministers scoffed at and despised; long journeys and long voyages are likely to prove unsuccessful; disputes, quarrels, and law suits in families, and chiefly with the wife's relations. Mars placed in the mansion of ♀ denotes that much lewdness will abound; but let me advise the sons of Neptune and Mars to live soberly, temperate, and chaste, or they may perchance perchance suffer more by a scratch of Venus than what they have done by the scars of Mars. This Eclipse falling in the 11th house of heaven, shews loss of friends and disappointment of our hopes; and being the ascendant of Paris, foreshews in that kingdom and city destruction of the fruits of the earth, scarcity of grain, and a danger of a raging pestilence under ♀ and ☿. The ☽ departing from a ☐ of ♂, and applying to an 8 of the ☾ in the 5th house, signifies the death of some great prince. Venus, lady of the ascendant, in the house of ♄, and in the 4th, betokens a very untoward quarter, and we cannot expect any favourable events from the positions at this Eclipse; war, rapine, and bloodshed, loss of friends and money, death of antient persons in general, trade dull, money scarce, and much murmuring with the common people against our law makers.

OF THE WINTER QUARTER, 1783.

THIS quarter begins at such time as the Earth by its circumrotation hath revolved itself to the greatest northern inclination, whereby we being farthest deflected from the Sun's rays, receive least heat, and causes our shortest days and longest nights, or according to appearance when the Sun enters Capricorn; which happens this year (1783) according to Mayer's Tables, on December the 20th, 14h. 15m. apparent time; at which time 1 degree of ♍ ascends, and 12° of ♋ culminates. All the celestials are sub terra, except ♂ the warlike prince, who is situate in the 7th house, the house of war, and of our public enemies, and such are the French and Dutch, and of which we have lately had flagrant proofs. ♄ and the ☾ are located in the 5th house, ♊ in the 6th, ♀ in the 2d, and ☿ in the 4th; the ☽ in the 3d, ♂ is lord of the ascendant at this ingress, the horoscope of Norway, Bavaria, and some parts of Spain and France. The late ☐ of ♊ and ♀, and ☐ of ♄ and ♂, will produce dissensions, discord, and disputes among the military, statesmen, and divines; and ladies of family and fortune will find disappointment and perplexity in law suits, and respecting contracts about marriage; but the application of ♀ to ♄ by a * aspect, and in his own dominion, will, it is to be hoped, hoped, somewhat abate the malignant aspects before noted. ♀ near the cusp of the 3d, and nearly in 8 to the transit of Ireland, shews that all the subtilty, deceit, and hypocrisy that evil minded men can suggest, will be set on foot. Great complaints of the badness of trade, and dearness and scarcity of the necessaries of life. The ☐ of Saturn and Mars will much afflict the soldiery and aged people of both Indies, and some part of North America, and all those places under the dominion of Aries and Capricorn; ♄ being one of the earthy triplicity, cold, dry, melancholy, and nocturnal, shews tempests, hurricanes, foul weather, and great losses by shipping. Diseases at this time are the the gout, aches, boils, ulcers, chilblains, and salt phlegms, which are most predominant.

OF THE SPRING QUARTER.

THIS quarter commenceth this year March the 19th day, at 46 minutes past 10 at night; at which time 10 degrees of Virgo possesseth the mid-heaven, and 20 degrees of Scorpio cut the East angle; Jupiter and Venus are in ♄ in the 3d house, and the Moon is located in the 5th, the significator of Leo and Venus, both which joy joy in this house; the Moon is departing from a conjunction of Jupiter, and hastening to a quartile aspect with Mars, who is posited in the 8th, and Mercury his dispositor in conjunction with Venus in the 3d house; the ☽ is departing from a ☿ of ♈ and hastening to a ☐ with ♄ and a ☿ with ♀ and ☿; Mars, lord of the ascendant, and the 12th house, is located in the 8th house, the house of death, duels, &c. ☿ is lord of the 10th, and posited in the 4th in ♈, and ♄ his dispositor is in the 2d house. By Vox Stellarum at this ingress I will venture to predict, that there is no very good understanding between the horoscopes of Vienna and Rome; Pope Pious the VIth is not well pleased with his son Joseph the II^d. now Emperor of the East, for at the Pope's late visit to the Emperor he was received with a coolness (and yet with a politeness) which I am persuaded he little expected. The present Emperor is a prince of too much prudence, penetration, and sagacity, to be pope-ridden, or submit too much to the supremacy of the triple crown and crozier; on the contrary he is diminishing that power in his dominions, for he has already abolished a great number of nunneries and monasteries within his empire, esteeming them nurseries of idleness and luxury, and a harbour for lazy Monks and Friars, and a dead weight upon a state. In short, Popery appears to be on the decline, and perhaps hastening apace to its last period.

In April ♄ enters the tropical sign Cancer, the significator of Constantinople, and beholds ♄ with an 8, who is in the horoscope of Vienna and Berlin, which excites those powers to jealousies and fears, and may stir up war among them; for the Emperor is waiting an opportunity to recover his dominions of which he has been robbed, viz. Siletia by the King of Prussia, and a part of Hungary by the Turks; and old sly Saturn is very busy in stimulating him up to war and blood shedding, and Mars strongly abets the same, so that I would advise the Prussian Monarch to be on his guard, for Joseph only wants a good opportunity.

The position of ♄ in ♀ in the 8th house, portends great mischief by wars, tumults, and sickness, to Sardinia, Lombardy, Flanders, Brabant, and Egypt; and likely London may have a share of the ill designs of ☿, lord of the

the mid-heaven, who is plotting all manner of deceit in the 4th house, assisted by that old serpent ♀, who is very powerful in the 2d; but as all the erraticks are under the earth, I hope their power will be diminished. The late ♄ of the ♀ with ♃ ♀ and ♄, from the ascendant of Portugal, imports great changes among the gentlemen in that kingdom in the law department, and to the Queen a great sickness, if not death.

OF THE SUMMER QUARTER.

THIS Quarter takes its beginning at such time as the Earth enters the tropical sign Capricorn, or apparently when the ☉ touches the first point of ♊, which this year falls on Sunday, June 20, at 40 minutes past 8 o'clock at night, making the longest day at London 16 hours 34 minutes, at which time and place we have 15° of ♍ culminating, and 9° of ♊ ascending; Saturn, lord of the 1st house, is situate near the cusp of the same; and Mars, lord of the 10th, is seated in the 7th, and just departed from an ♄ to the lord of the ascendant; Jupiter, lord of the 11th and 12th, and retrograde, is situate near the cusp of the 2d, in quartile aspect to Venus, who is mistress of the 4th and 9th, and nearly in conjunction with ♄ in the 5th house; England's ascendant is on the cusp of the 3d house, and Mars, lord of that and the 10th, in ♄ with the ♀, and just entered into the Lion, the only house of the ☉; ♄ has lately departed from a ♄ with the ☉, and is applying to a ♄ with ♀, and in his exaltation in his own day house, promises that women will be free from infirmities and mishaps, and many honourable marriages will be contracted, learned men promoted, and great success to the merchant and trader, especially to all persons concerned in leather and woollen manufactories, and all branches appertaining to buildings; ♃, lord of the 11th house, is located on the cusp of the 2d, and in good aspect with the ☉, shews that the King will at this time be well fixed with great and good counsellors, and that good harmony and peace will reign in Great Britain and Ireland; nothing that I can see to prevent it but the ☐ of ♀ with ♃ to allay such pacific consequences, which are not very powerful.

If North America be under $\wp$, as some eminent artists affirm it is, beheld by δ , the $\mathcal{D}$ and Ω , with an opposition from the 7th house, which shews great divisions and commotions are on foot, and that the Colonies have a very arduous task to wade through before they have framed a code of laws that will prove satisfactory and permanent. δ seems to excite some restless spirits among them to horrible actions; abundance of cares, sorrows, fears, and contradictions. Men will be wholly intent in getting and purloining other mens' estates, every man for himself and without any just pretence, and these conclusions may probably take place in some parts of North America.

OF THE AUTUMNAL OR HARVEST QUARTER.

THIS Quarter begins when the Sun entereth the equinoctial sign Libra, which is this year, 1784, on Wednesday the 22d day of September, at 29 minutes past 9 o'clock in the morning, making an equality of day and night all over the world; at which time in the latitude of London 20° of Ω possesseth the mid-heaven, and 7° of the treacherous sign $\mathfrak{m}$ is on the ascendant; Mars, lord thereof, is in Venus's company, in the 11th house, and $\mathfrak{z}$, lord of the same, is posited in the 12th, the house of our public enemies; $\mathfrak{z}$ is departing from a $\mathfrak{z}$ with δ , and making application to $\mathfrak{z}$, who is located in the 12th, in $\mathfrak{z}$, the domain of $\mathfrak{z}$, and exaltation of $\mathfrak{h}$, and the detriment of δ . The $\odot$ is almuten at this ingress, and nearly in $\mathfrak{z}$ with δ ; $\mathfrak{z}$ seems to be exceeding busy at this time, he is making application to $\mathfrak{z}$ by a $\mathfrak{z}$, and to the old malignant $\mathfrak{h}$ by a quartile aspect, and to the $\odot$ by $\mathfrak{z}$; $\mathfrak{z}$ is intercepted in the 4th house, and $\mathfrak{h}$ has great dominion in the house of friends and kindred. This autumnal ingress is attended with some serene and amicable aspects of the stars, as a Δ of $\mathfrak{h}$ and $\mathfrak{z}$, a $\mathfrak{z}$ of δ and $\mathfrak{z}$, a $\mathfrak{z}$ of $\odot$ and δ , a $\mathfrak{z}$ of $\mathfrak{z}$ and $\mathfrak{z}$, a $\mathfrak{z}$ of the $\odot$ and $\mathfrak{z}$. These signify health to our most gracious King and Queen, a temperate season, and great plenty of all fruits of the earth, with successful returns from most parts of the globe.

I HAVE

I HAVE this year, as well as in my Merlin of last year, inserted a correct Table of Houses for the latitude of London, for the use of those who may be inclined to study the two sublime sciences of Astronomy and Astrology, in which they will find more pleasure, truth, and satisfaction, than they conceive, unless they enter deep into them; and which sciences have been studied by some of the greatest genius's of this and all other nations with whom we are acquainted.

It is a sort of paradox to me, that many who make use of this divine science, should both publicly and privately calumniate it, when it is well known most of our ablest physicians make use of the art; but parva leves capiunt animos. It is enough for me, that I have found so much verity in the ravishing beauty, constant order, and powerful efficacy of the celestial bodies, as to lead me to the knowledge, contemplation, and admiration of the supreme cause, the architect of this wonderful frame, who by his omnipotent word did create them; and in the riches of his mercy and wisdom, by his providence, pre-ordained their ministry and motions, and to sustain and uphold, as secondary causes, the means and instruments for the ordinary governing of this inferior and elementary world. Whoever hath defamed, or shall traduce this science, we must conclude it proceeds from ignorance, and want of skill, in understanding the art itself; or such as would have been glad to have been acquainted therewith, but found some bars and difficulties in their way, that they wanted perseverance, and gave it up at the gate, or lodge, and never entered into the castle of the divine Urania; and indeed I must own that the books upon this subject, common in our English tongue, are but too apt to lead young students out of the way, into labyrinths, from which those who want the qualifications of diligence and industry, will never be able to extricate themselves; and therefore, to excuse themselves and their dull stupidity, they have broke out into slander and detraction, and bitterly declaimed against all celestial verity.

In short, no lawful art, science, or philosophy whatever, has suffered such vilifications, misrepresentations, contemnings, and abuses, as this most antient and excellent art of Astrology has; not to reflect on the vulgar part of mankind, who see with other mens' eyes, and judge by other mens' absurd opinions and sayings, and so conceive base and false notions of the art and its professors; but it has been often calumniated and opposed by men whose dignity and profession proclaim them learned; and some of them account themselves masters of the whole magazine of learning, and that they have it fixed in the pia mater of their brains; but,

*Ingenus didicisse fideliter artes,
Emoluit mores, nec finit esse feros.*

But divine providence has still favoured it at all times with its champions and votaries, who have sufficiently attested, and clearly proved its antiquity, veracity, innocence, and usefulness; and that it has been justified and tolerated by Scripture, antient fathers, schoolmen, philosophers, and some of our latter divines, and others of this nation, who were men of profound parts and great learning and piety; and by the most convincing proofs, and solid arguments, that could possibly be produced, to evince the truth of it, and of its legality,

But lo! the press has overtook my pen,
The time's at hand, and I must wander; then
The fairs and markets I must duly keep,
And on the stall blend with the dirty heap
Of penny wares, where the disdainful eye,
Pores on me two long hours before he'll buy:
Nay some, although on me they greatly doat,
Will not vouchsafe me every year a coat;
But cloath'd or naked I must still appear
Servant or slave throughout the current year;
And when that's past, and when this journey's over,
I'll try the next your favours to discover.
